Second Sunday of Advent

Almost nine hundred years ago, Saint Bernard of Clairvaux suggested in one of his Advent homilies that we should think of three Advents of Christ: the First, when Christ came in humility as Mary's Child, clothed in our human nature; the Second, when Christ will come in glory as Judge and Redeemer of the world. Then Saint Bernard speaks of a Middle Coming, an "in the meantime" Advent, when Christ comes to us in his Word, in the Eucharist, and in those who need our love and care, family and friends, neighbors and strangers. That's this year's Advent, the one we're celebrating now; and this Advent's question is: how attentive am I to Christ's coming into my life-story, right here, right now?

AN UNNOTICED ADVENT

Today Luke solemnly announces the names of the secular and sacred powers who thought they held the world's destiny in their hands. But they completely missed the decisive event that forever changed the world's religious and political history. When no one else was listening, God's Word came to a nobody, John the Baptist, and not in the temple sanctuary or palace throne room, but "out in the sticks," the Word that would one day cleanse the temple and topple thrones. The powerful names that Luke announces were not popular with ordinary people: times were tough, the economy was bad, people were having to make do with less; and those names reminded common folks that so much of life was beyond their control. Sound familiar? Yet just then, when many were far from hopeful, God acted decisively to save the people, and John the Baptist invited his listeners then, and us today, to join in the Good News of new life.

GOD'S RECONSTRUCTION PLAN

We heard Baruch, in the first reading, picturing our broken world reborn: the dispersed being carried home, tears wiped away, righteousness and justice, peace and worship. How we wish it could all be true! It will be true, Paul declares, optimistic that God, who has already begun such good work in us, will continue to complete it for the day of Christ's glorious return, increasing our love and sharpening our discernment of the values that endure. So we should begin this second week of Advent reinvigorated with hope in God's plan for the world's salvation. But John the Baptist reminds us that God's "reconstruction plan" for the world's transformation begins much closer to home: what twists and turns of my own life must be untangled, what lofty mountains of my own pride and self-centeredness brought low, which gorge-deep valleys of my own indifference and neglect filled in? Come, Lord Jesus, and make the whole creation new—but start right here, right now, with me!

Initiation Programs and Adult Formation

Becoming Catholic

The RCIA process is one of conversion and spiritual formation for individuals interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. It is a time of prayer, reflection, study, faith sharing, discernment and participation in the life of the parish.

This process is for those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized in another faith tradition, or those who were baptized Catholic and seek full initiation.

RCIA Sponsors

Parish sponsors accompany those in the RCIA process of conversation and faith formation as companions on the journey. Sponsors support those in RCIA with prayers and their own witness to the Christian way of life. Serving as a sponsor fulfills the necessary ministry envisioned by the RCIA process, but it is also an incredibly enriching experience.

Awakening Faith

Have you been away from the active practice of your Catholic faith? Would you like to feel more connected with your childhood faith or learn more about it as an adult? Consider attending the Awakening Faith Series. We can assist you return to the active practice of your faith and welcome you back to the Lord's Table.

Adult Confirmation

Are you an active practicing Catholic adult who “missed” participating in the Sacrament of Confirmation? We invite you to enter the process of preparation at the parish.

To learn more, visit olmc.org or contact Christa at the parish office at extension 107 or email cbloomstrom@olmc.org.

walking with purpose

Walking With Purpose - This fall we are excited to offer, Opening Your Heart, a foundational bible study that meets women exactly where they are. We will dig into topics like prayer, the role of the Holy Spirit, and what exactly is the point of suffering. This 22-lesson study is a MUST for the woman just dipping her toes in the faith pool and the Olympic swimmer in need of a faith refresher! Join us Wednesday evenings at 7pm. Call the parish office to register.

Women's Bible Study – NEW 8 WEEK STUDY begins 9am Thursday, Jan. 6.

Embark on a guided tour of the “Holy of Holies” of biblical theology in Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant, an eight-part Bible study presented by Dr. Andrew Swafford and Jeff Cavins! In this study, Catholics will be able to see, appreciate, and take hold of the riches God has given them in the New Covenant. Highlighting the critical distinctions between the Old and New Covenants, Hebrews will help Catholics get to know the generosity of the Father's heart in a deeper way than ever before. Don't wait to order your Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant Study Set (includes workbook and online video access) at ascensionpress.com.

Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant Study Set (includes workbook and online video access) at ascensionpress.com.

Are you new to the Women's Bible Study? Contact Christa to register at the parish office or register at olmc.org.

That Man Is You – Join us Saturday mornings at 7am at Saint Michael Hall for The Vision of Man Fully Alive series. Through living the three-fold mission of abiding presence, joyful service and living sacrifice, our hearts and homes will experience the joy that God desires. We will be led directly to the three spiritual foods that Christ himself proclaims: The Eucharist, The Word of God, and The Will of God. Register at olmc.org

Small groups are life changing – join one at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church! Our small groups offer men and women an opportunity to pray, study and grow in their faith together. Small groups journey together in discipleship. To learn more about being a part of a small group or to receive training to start a small group find us online at olmc.org.

Pastoral Care

Respite Ministry

Are you a caregiver who is seeking some respite time for yourself? The Respite Ministry provides parishioners who are full time caretakers of a home-bound loved one, a break of a few hours' time to use as he or she sees fit. During that time, a trained parish Respite Minister will provide safety, supervision, and companionship to the homebound family member.

To find out more about Nourish for Caregivers, Circle of Hope and/or the Respite Ministry, call Christa at the parish office ext. 107.

Is the Holy Spirit asking you to be “a shepherd he feeds his flock” in the priesthood? Call the Vocations Office, (804) 359-5661, to speak with Fr. Brian Capuano; or write to vocations@richmonddiocese.org.

Segundo Domingo de Adviento

Hace casi novecientos años, san Bernardo de Claraval sugirió en una de sus homilías de Adviento que deberíamos pensar en tres Advientos de Cristo: el primero cuando Cristo vino humildemente como el Niño de María, revestido de nuestra naturaleza humana; el segundo cuando Cristo venga en gloria como Juez y redentor del mundo. Luego, san Bernardo habla de una venida intermedia, un Adviento “mientras tanto”, cuando Cristo viene a nosotros en su Palabra, en la Eucaristía y en aquellos que necesitan nuestro amor y cuidado, familia y amigos, vecinos y extraños. Ese es el Adviento de este año, el que estamos celebrando ahora; y la pregunta de este Adviento es: ¿hasta qué punto estoy atento a la llegada de Cristo a la historia de mi vida, aquí y ahora?

UN ADVENIMIENTO INADVERTIDO

Hoy Lucas anuncia solemnemente los nombres de los poderes seculares y sagrados que creían tener en sus manos el destino del mundo. Pero se perdieron por completo el acontecimiento decisivo que cambió para siempre la historia religiosa y política del mundo. Cuando nadie escuchaba, la Palabra de Dios llegó a un don nadie, Juan el Bautista, y no en el santuario del templo o en la sala del trono de un palacio, sino “en la calle”, la Palabra que un día limpiaría el templo y derribaría tronos. Los poderosos nombres que anuncia Lucas no eran populares entre la gente común: los tiempos eran difíciles, la economía era mala, la gente tenía que arreglárselas con menos; y esos nombres recordaban a la gente común que gran parte de la vida estaba fuera de su control. ¿Les resulta familiar? Sin embargo, justo en ese momento, cuando muchos estaban lejos de la esperanza, Dios actuó con decisión para salvar al pueblo.

EL PLAN DE RECONSTRUCCIÓN DE DIOS

Escuchamos a Baruc, en la primera lectura, imaginando nuestro mundo roto renaciendo: los dispersos siendo llevados a casa, las lágrimas enjugadas, la rectitud y la justicia, la paz y la adoración. Cómo quisiéramos que todo esto fuera verdad. Pablo declara que será verdad, optimista de que Dios, que ya ha comenzado una obra tan buena en nosotros, seguirá completándola para el día del regreso glorioso de Cristo, aumentando nuestro amor y agudizando nuestro discernimiento de los valores que perduran. Así pues, deberíamos comenzar esta segunda semana de Adviento revigorizados con la esperanza en el plan de Dios para la salvación del mundo. Pero Juan el Bautista nos recuerda que el “plan de reconstrucción” de Dios para la transformación del mundo comienza mucho más cerca de casa: ¿qué giros de mi propia vida hay que desenredar, qué montañas elevadas de mi propio orgullo y egocentrismo hay que rebajar, qué valles profundos de mi propia indiferencia y negligencia hay que rellenar? Ven, Señor Jesús, y haz que toda la creación sea nueva, pero empieza aquí y ahora conmigo.

¿Es que el Espíritu Santo te está pidiendo que “apacientes su rebaño” a través del sacerdocio? Llama al Padre Brian Capuano al (804) 359-5661 o escríbele a: vocations@richmonddiocese.org.
